

it's your turn to explore the pathway to a career in education!

The Pathway

Great Bay Community College

Associate of Arts Degree: Liberal Arts—Teacher Preparation (68 credits)

Granite State College

Bachelor of Arts Degree: Liberal Studies—Language Arts (60 credits)

Granite State College

Post Baccalaureate Teacher Certification Program (32-44 credits)

- Early Childhood Special Education
- General Special Education
- General Special Education and Elementary Education
- Reading Specialist
- Learning Disabilities
- Emotional/Behavioral Disorders
- Intellectual/Developmental Disorders

Keene State College

Masters in Education: Curriculum & Instruction or Special Education (12 credits)

For more information call:

Great Bay Community College

Pat Corbett • 603-775-2363 • pcorbett@ccsnh.edu

Granite State College

Mary Ford • 603-513-1371 • mary.ford@granite.edu

Benefits Of This Program

- This is a program designed for working adults.
- Federal Financial Aid is available.
- You can continue working while you complete your degrees.
- 92% of GSC teacher candidates get jobs as teachers in NH.