

VAST

VAST: Academic Video Online is a multidisciplinary collection of over 13,000 streaming videos. VAST is great for History, Business, Education, Psychology, Criminal Justice and other disciplines.

1. Go to <https://ezproxy.greatbay.edu/login?url=http://video.alexanderstreet.com>. For off campus access, use your college email username and password.
2. Perform a quick video search in the top right corner. Or, Search or Browse by Discipline in the center of the page. You may also browse using the other options on the left, including Author, Topic, or Video Type.

3. The results page will show hits for your search term. You can Filter Results by choosing from the options on the right side of the page, including Video Type, Discipline, and Year Released.
4. When viewing a video, click on any line in the Transcript to jump to the corresponding point. You can also view Clips, if applicable, and Release Notes. At the top of the page, view the full Transcript as well as Thumbnails for this video.

5. To cite a video from VAST, use the guidelines below and refer to the APA or MLA guides on OWL, at owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/. To find the necessary information, select see more details at the top of a video page.

- a. For MLA, include the title, director/author/producer(s) (if applicable), series (if applicable), publisher, year, the name of the website (VAST), format of the source (Web), and date of access. Examples:
