

ENGLISH

Associate of Arts

Great Bay's Associate of Arts in English degree encompasses the study of a wide range of literary periods, styles, and genres. The program provides students with a broad background in American, British, and continental literature written in English, as well as the analytical tools and skills necessary for the serious academic study of literature. Students can pursue specialized literary or writing interests through their electives.

The program provides a strong foundation for further study of English and the humanities at four-year colleges and universities.

An English associate degree emphasizes solid and adaptable communication skills for students who love literature and language, and the exploration and development of complex ideas. This major helps to develop important research, writing and critical thinking skills that can translate into valuable workplace contributions in a wide variety of fields.
