

HISTORY

Associate in Arts

Great Bay's History Associate in Arts Degree provides students with a broad range of historical and political perspectives. Courses allow students to explore various views and concepts from our own country and around the world. Students will develop research skills through the use of primary and secondary sources.

The History degree at Great Bay may be applied toward the requirements for a Bachelors in Arts in History or a related bachelors degree.

Students with degrees in History have found jobs in a wide variety of fields such as law, public policy, education, government, historic preservation, and with local, state or national museums as curators, guides, archivists or consultants.

Career Possibilities

Job Title	Average Salary
Historian	$30,000
Tour Guides & Escort	$30,000
Archivist	$65,000
Museum Technician	$37,000

The careers listed above may require additional education beyond an Associate Degree. For more information about the outlook and trends, please visit the Bureau of Labor Statistics: www.bls.gov.
