1. After careful review of Section 18004(a)(1) of the CARES Act along with US Department of Education guidance, GBCC established that a student could be considered for a CARES Act Emergency Student Fund Award if the following eligibility criteria were met:
 - Student must demonstrate eligibility to participate in programs under Section 484 of the Higher Education Act - Click here for HEA Section 484 details
 - To confirm Section 484 eligibility, student needed to submit a valid 2019-2020 FAFSA to GBCC that demonstrated Section 484 eligibility
 - Student must be matriculated in and making satisfactory academic progress in a degree or certificate program
 - Student must have been registered for Spring Semester program course(s) as of March 13, 2020

2. GBCC identified matriculated students who were registered on March 13, 2020. On May 5, 2020 GBCC sent CARES Act advisory emails (to student and personal email addresses) to:

- 863 students with 1920 FAFSAs submitted to GBCC

Dear Student,

*As a result of the CARES Act, the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund has been established to provide students with emergency financial aid grants to help cover expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to coronavirus. The Department of Education has indicated only students who are or could be eligible to participate in programs under Section 484 in Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended (HEA), may be eligible to receive these emergency financial aid grants. You have completed your 2019-2020 FAFSA and may be eligible for these funds. We are working on a process to determine eligibility and distribute these funds to students with COVID related expenses. Please be on the lookout for other emails with additional information, including a survey to complete if you have been affected by the closure of the physical campus of the College due to coronavirus.

Sincerely,

Financial Aid Team

- SIS Survey access information was posted on the GBCC website, and on social media.
 - SIS Survey application access was retired on June 11, 2020.
5. A special report was designed to facilitate review of survey results (RXRCARE)
- Between June 8, 2020 and June 13, 2020 GBCC reviewed the 292 submitted survey applications.

- 282 of the student applicants were registered on March 13, 2020
- 260 of these students met all other eligibility requirements
 - 237 of the 260 Answered Yes to at least one question/expense category on the survey
 - 23 of the 260 responded “No” to the question “Do you have expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to coronavirus?”

6. Award amounts for the 237 survey applicant responders were allocated according to the number of expense categories designated by the student:

Yes Response Tally	Student Count	Award Amount	Total
Yes 1 - 2	37	$ 1,000	$ 37,000
Yes 3 - 4	70	$ 1,100	$ 77,000
Yes 5 - 6	74	$ 1,200	$ 88,800
Yes 7 - 9	56	$ 1,300	$ 72,800
	237		$ 275,600

7. After monitoring the US Department of Education’s revised guidance as published, GBCC concluded that all GBCC matriculated students enrolled on March 13, 2020 were impacted due to the disruption of campus operations due to coronavirus, and could be eligible for a CARES Act award if all other eligibility requirements were satisfied. GBCC reviewed:

- All potentially eligible non survey students, evaluating the eligibility requirements via the logic in the RXRCARE report, and added the
- 23 eligible students who answered “No” to the CARES Survey Application.

As a result, 638 additional students were awarded $250 each. (GBCC supplemented the grant with $15 from institutional funds.)

TOTAL GBCC CARES ACT AWARDS (Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund)

Students	Amount	Total
638	$ 250	$ 159,500
37	$ 1,000	$ 37,000
